

I believe that Clear Channel with ownership of most of the stations in my area constitutes a monopoly as well as a restriction of many folks rights under the first ammendment. I am not opposed to one company owning a multitude of stations, but there needs to be a rule the limits the ownership within the defined broadcast area.